Forward:

The mission of the Manchester Health Department is “to improve the health of individuals, families, and the community through disease prevention, health promotion, and protection from environmental threats.” The Manchester Health Department, together with community leaders and youth-serving agencies, has developed this Adolescent Resource Guide for use by anyone in our greater Manchester community who works directly with youth and their families. It is our hope that Manchester youth-serving agencies may find this guide useful for staff, and perhaps also as a resource to make available in client waiting rooms. We envision this as a tool for our youth to seek necessary information, in an easily accessible and confidential manner, for themselves or for their peers. Children and teens are our most valuable resource, and investing in their lives is an important investment for the future of the health and welfare of our Manchester community.

We have attempted to create a directory of services available in Manchester, which addresses the needs of youth in a broad fashion. Research shows that the success of our youth is influenced by a myriad of factors, including their home environment, family support, peer relationships, socioeconomic status, academic success, and mental and physical health, to name a few. If we truly hope to improve the health and well being of Manchester youth, we must address all of these interconnected components. Addressing only one or two of them, is less likely to lead to sustainable, positive changes in behaviors and lifestyles.

All of our youth will benefit if we approach them as “at-promise” rather than “at-risk”, and if we seek to make Manchester a great community in which to be a teen!

Elaine R. Douville, RN, BSN, CSN
Supervisor of School Health, Manchester Health Department
